EDWIN GARLAND, Observer.

KING OF THE BLIND.—Plumbeous on the face. Case: I have been troubled for the past three or four years with a very disagreeable eruption on my face, and tried many different remedies, as well as physicians, and have given up disengaged, thinking I never should be cured, when I accidentally heard of your King of the Blind. I bought a bottle and used it according to directions and received relief, and by using three bottles more I am completely cured, and can cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted by scrofulous disease or any impurity of the blood.

THE HARRIER OF DEATH.—It would seem the usual causes of infant mortality are not sufficient. The innocent ones are not permitted an even birth with the king of terror. At this hot and sultry season, the tender child, battling with the enemies of its life that lie in wait at every corner, has, in addition, to encounter another deadly foe—Strife. Winsome's or some other poisonous syrup, administered by the hands of some heartless nurse, yet mother, or unfeeling father. A host of lives might be saved each year by giving Dr. McCauley's Medicated Brandy, which effectively cures all infantile complaints without any deleterious results. $20.25.

TO KANSAS AND COLORADO!

During the summer season of 1873, the Missouri Pacific railroad will sell excursion tickets from St. Louis to Denver and return, at very low rates of fare, and a rare opportunity is thereby offered, for lovers of nature to view the beauty of Colorado and enjoy the delightful scenes and health-giving climate of the parks of the Rocky Mountains.

Kansas, with its broad and fertile plains, is directly to the hand, and together with all the other Western States and Territories, is reached by the Missouri Pacific railroad and its connections.

The TEXAS connection of this road is now completed, and passengers are offered a first class air-line route from St. Louis to Texas, either over the Missouri, Kansas & Texas R. R., via Sedalia, or over the St. Louis & San Antonio, via Vinton. For maps, time tables, information as to rates, routes, etc., we refer our readers to S. H. Thompson, Eastern Passenger Agent, Columbus, Ohio, or E. Ford, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Missouri. Questions will be promptly and cheerfully answered.

EMIGRATION TURNING!

CHEAP FARMS IN SOUTH-WEST MO.

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company offers 1,200,000 acres in Central and Southern Missouri, at from $1 to $10 per acre, on seven times, with free transportation from St. Louis to all purchases. Climate, soil, timber, mineral wealth, schools, churches and law-abiding society invite emigrants from all points to this land of fruits and flowers. For particular address, A. Tuck, Land Commissioner, St. Louis, Missouri. Questions will be promptly and cheerfully answered.

Hunks for the Cairo, Arkansas & West railroad, starting from White & Grier's store, corner of Sixth street and Ohio levee, run as follows:

THE BULLETIN.

Dr. LAWRENCE, of Goose Island, desires that he interview the ghost of Don Briscoe.

ASSOCIATE COUNTY JUDGE MARSHALL, accompanied by his wife and daughter, are stopping at the St. Charles.

REMOVED.—Dr. Dunning has removed his residence temporarily to the second cottage east of School's hall, on Ninth street.

THE gas post at the corner of Fourth street and Ohio levee is, or was last night, so dilapidated a condition as to give out "any ray of light."

MOSSES, recently a dry goods merchant in this city, is still trading, Dexter, Missouri, his future home. He proposes to go into the dry goods business there.

ANNA has discontinued the strawing of flowers, and is seeking Rosette et Julio with a sharp stick. If Julio is fat what a stay may not be there, my countrymen.

ATTENTION ANANS.—You are hereby requested to report at engine house in uniform, upon the ringing of the bell. By order of the committee of arrangements.

THE members of the Casino are requested to meet at their hall this morning at 10 o'clock, to attend to the funeral of their deceased brother, John Hines.

Louis BRICKMAN, Secy.

On and after Monday, September 1, all vehicles carrying passengers to and from Cairo and the C. & T. railroad, will be required to stop at Greenfield's ferry at half-past, until after the fair at Charleston, Mo.

8-27-1873.

THE funeral of John Hines will take place this morning at 10 o'clock, sharp. His remains will be taken from his residence to the Catholic church and thence to Villa Ridge, by a special train.

GEO. CHRISTIAN, a little son of Mr. Gus Christian, the bricklayer, while playing base-ball yesterday had one of his fingers broken and most shockingly mangled. The poor child was almost frantic with pain. Dr. Smith set the broken bone.

WANTS.—Two good girls to go with a stated time, good wages will be paid them and their travelling expenses borne to Denver. Apply to Mrs. D. H. Hines, 8-27-1873.

WANTS.—When informed that he applied for a superintendence had not been successful, gave up all hope of escaping the gallows. He was silent and would not converse. He asked to see his mother. The old lady, when she heard the news, was greatly distressed.

THE Galore to obtain a superintendence in the school of Campbell, has created quite a ripple of excitement in the city. Dr. Guy Bedford does not now interpose the unfortunate man will hang. Hanging is a crime of barbarism, and we hoped that Alexander county would never be disgraced by the tragedy of a gallows execution.

MR. J. T. NEWCOMER of Dexter, Missouri, arrived in Cairo yesterday for the purpose of purchasing supplies for his store at the above place. Mr. Newcomer has unbounded faith in the future of Dexter. He feels confident that it will, in a very few years, be the leading town in Southeast Missouri. Mr. N. is stopping at the St. Charles.

We understand that Rev. H. B. Thayer is now devoting a few spare hours each week in the preparation of a new lecture. His subject this time is "The Social Undercurrents. He will doubtless be ready for vigorous action by the time the lecture season opens. Mr. Thayer is connected with no lecture bureau. If he were, he would have more than he could do in the lecture-field. Last season he filled sixteen lecture appointments, and in each case a general wish was expressed that he should return and lecture again. This gentleman is a ripe scholar and an eloquent orator. His public utterances, whether in the pulpit or behind the lecture desk, are full of erudition and are at once instructive and entertaining. He will doubtless have his hands full this coming season.

A rascally leaser writes a racy but abusive letter to the Columbus, (Ky.) "Dispatch" from Cairo. It will be found on the first page. Everybody, following the example of the newspaper correspondents who were located in Cairo during the war and here drank whisky and told lies, makes this city a butt for miserable jokes.

This correspondent is in his glass abler than the average Villager. He has, but so rarely, we would not have him tell the truth for the playground town of Columbus.

SEVERAL days ago, in referring to the fact that Deputy Sheriff Cain had gone to Union City after one of the would-be bad Anderson assassins, and when he got there found that the wrong man had been arrested, we said that "Deputy Cain was terribly disgusted with the way the authorities at Union City did business." Mr. Cain says he was not disgusted for he was never treated better in his life, and that the mistake in making the arrest was such as any officer might be liable to make.

THE Murphy are "dissatisfied," says, "The Atlantic base ball club is wasting its substance on desert air for want of material to operate on. The challenge to play any or all base ball clubs in Southern Illinois for a large amount, from $50 to $500, stands good until accepted." Cairo Breitner, how are the Egyptians on the play?

They are pretty well, we thank you. What do you wish? Our Egyptians are waiting for an opportunity to devour the Atlantics or some other club, and the club of which we are a member—we have gone into the base ball business—is eager for a fray. If the Egyptians can't use up the Atlantics, we the Nemesis can.

HER. D. L. LINSLEY, who left this city on last Monday for Carlyle, to lay before Judge Briscoe an application for an injunction on behalf of Campbell, the murderer, returned yesterday, having failed in the object of his journey. When Campbell learned that Mr. Linsey failed to induce Judge Briscoe to interpose a supercilious between himself and the gallows, he became dejected and remorseful, and for the first time since his trial showed a desire to have outsiders stay away from him. Police Magistrate Bird left for Springfield last night with a petition numerously signed asking the governor to grant Campbell a reprieve for thirty days, to give his attorney time to lay the case more fully before the supreme court.

A GAUNT SKINNE.—We know of nothing more tempting to the eye, and heart than the scheme of the fourth gift concert of the Public Library of Kentucky. The three former converts have proved that whatever the managers promise will certainly be performed, and now they promise us a million and half dollars at their December concert. They will give it and somebody will certainly get it. But it is equally sure that the fortunate person must of necessity be ticket-holders. Those who do not adventure, will not win, but of those who do adventure, one in every five is sure to win, and even the losers are hot contributors to an enterprise of great magnificence which reflects honor on all who have aided its success.

PUTTING ON THE SHOE.

A DRAYMAN WHO BELIEVES HE WAS HINTED AT.

AND WHO IS WRATHY TO THE ABUSIVE POINT.

In yesterday's issue of THE BULLETIN we published the following paragraph:

We have an English nobleman in the land of freedom, where the eagle shrieks, to distinguish himself at home, however, but the fact is he was a spendthrift, given to fast living, and his folks have gone back on him. May he not be the real Roger Tidmarsh?

Who will be surprised when we say we were astonished that the paragraph called out this fierce card:

CARNO, Ill., August 26, 1873.
Editor Cairo Bulletin:

SIR.—In the last issue of your paper I noticed an article which from the very pointed manner in which it was worded there cannot be the least doubt to whom it had reference. The writer, whatever he may be, is nothing more nor less than a malicious slanderer, also a stranger to the truth. A mean, contemptuous slander, given to the public, and his folks have gone back on him. May he not be the real Roger Tidmarsh?

Editor Cairo Bulletin:

He says: if he cannot, I denounce him as a liar, and surely he will know how to resent such an insult.

Hoping to hear from him and vindicate my character as an Englishman without fail.

I am yours etc.,
ARTHUR C. VERNON.

Until we received this card, we did not know that such a man as Arthur C. Vernon lived in Cairo, or drove a donkey anywhere. We had never heard of him before. We had never heard of any man or woman or child speak of him. In the paragraph complained of, we did not mention Arthur's name, and could not have done so never having heard it uttered by any person.

Arthur is too fast, and he is rather insolent. Mr. Vernon says: "He is the writer of the paragraph," calls me a nobleman, etc. Arthur is mistaken. We didn't call him anything. A gentleman remarked to us, "There is an English nobleman in town driving today," whereupon Arthur added, "He is a spendthrift, and his folks have abandoned him." Then we said, "There is an English nobleman in Cairo driving today," whereupon Arthur added, "He is a spendthrift, and his folks have abandoned him." Arthur is a spendthrift, and his folks have abandoned him.
